

Organizations, Congregations, Businesses:
Please support CLBSJ's second annual Read-a-thon!

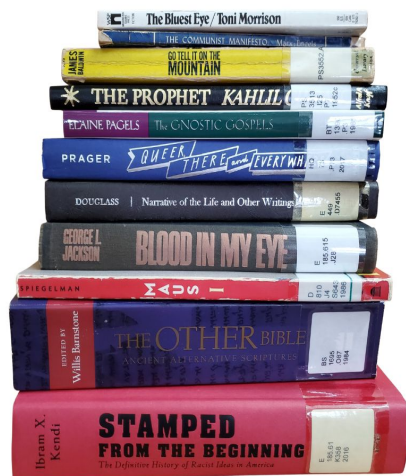

“WILL READ FOR JUSTICE!” a fundraiser to celebrate and extend critical engagement with the Bible

The Center and Library for the Bible and Social Justice (CLBSJ) is reading for justice! Your sponsorship will support CLBSJ's efforts to extend access to critical biblical engagement, and will provide your group with targeted publicity to our highly engaged audience.

You can sponsor at one of the following levels:

- Partner — $100–$499: We will mention your support in online messaging, including links to a website of your choice when possible.
- Promoter — $500–$999: We will mention your support in online messaging, including your logo and links to a website of your choice when possible.
- Advocate — $1000–$2499: We will mention your support in online messaging about the fundraiser, including your logo and links to a website of your choice when possible. We will highlight your name verbally during the event on October 5, or in another online video.
- Champion — $2500 and above: We will mention your support in online messaging about the fundraiser, including your logo and links to a website of your choice when possible. We will highlight your name and a message of your choice verbally during the event on October 5, or in another online video.

Other ways to support:

- Sign up as a Reader in our linked fundraiser, the “Will Read For Justice” Read-a-thon
- Donate to support a Read-a-thon Reader
- Invite folks in your network to do all of the above

Thank you for considering this request! As an independent organization, CLBSJ relies on the support of like-minded individuals and groups like yours. Contact Amy at clbsjorg@gmail.com or 845-603-2508 if you have questions or need help!
