Join Us!

As Mennonite Christians, we are compelled by our faith to lift our voices together in song and lament as we pray for an end to the occupation of Palestine and for our undocumented siblings to have safety and dignity. Mennonite Action DMV (DC, Maryland, and Virginia) invites others of faith to join us in a worship service of hymn singing and readings of scripture and poems by Palestinian poets to show our love for Palestinians and undocumented immigrants. We know that God’s love knows no borders.

On Saturday, March 22, we will gather at 9:30 a.m. – the museum opens at 10:00 a.m. – in front of the museum entrance at 400 4th St. SW in Washington, D.C. The closest Metro stop is Federal Center SW on the Orange, Blue, and Silver lines.

The intention of the event is to promote a vision of life, liberation, peace, justice, and compassion that extends to all of God’s children; to push against a climate of fear and division; and in particular to oppose and offer an alternative to rising Christian Nationalism and Christian Zionism. Christian Nationalism is not Christ-like. It has nothing to do with the teachings and the example of Jesus Christ, who called us to love our neighbors (and our enemies), to welcome strangers, and to care for the vulnerable.

Through this worshipful, nonviolent action, we hope to share with people going into the museum and passersby an alternative message to the Museum of the Bible themes and exhibits that promote Christian Nationalism and Christian Zionism. The museum erases the reality that the modern state of Israel was inhabited for millennia by people today known as Palestinians, people whose lands and rights have been taken away. The doctrine of Christian Zionism contends that Israel has the right to dispossess and drive away Palestinians because in the Hebrew Bible, God gave that land to Abraham and his descendants. Being Christian does not give us a free pass to distort history and support Christian Nationalism or Christian Zionism. Being a Christian means a willingness to be honest about our past, make amends, and lift up those who are oppressed.

This action is a permitted event, and no civil disobedience or risking arrest is planned.
